

Jason's Christmas Party

3B Tsang Wing Yan

Last Sunday, Jason held a Christmas party at home. Uncle Sam and Auntie Sara visited his family and joined his party.

Jason's mum prepared a lot of food. They had a delicious meal. They had pizza and turkey. They chatted happily together.

Jason got a big present from Uncle Sam and Auntie Sara. He was over the moon. He held the present and walked around excitedly.

Unfortunately, Jason fell down. One of his knee was painful, so he cried loudly. Mum asked him to open his big present. It was a toy plane. He was very happy, so he forgot his pain. What an unforgettable Christmas party!
