

Jason's Christmas present

3C (1) Chan Jae

Uncle Wong and Aunt Coco visited Jason and his family last Sunday to celebrate Christmas.

They had dinner at eight o'clock. They ate turkey, salad, chicken wings and drank some juice. They enjoyed the meal very much. They were happy.

After that, Aunt Coco gave Jason a present. He shook the present because he wanted to know what the present in the box was. 'Oh no!' Jason shouted. He dropped the present on the floor! He felt really sad and nervous. He was afraid that his parents might scold him.

Luckily, when he unwrapped the present to check, he found that the present was a car encyclopedia! He was thrilled because he loves playing with toy cars.
