

21st October, Saturday

Last week, Mum, Dad, Emma and I went to Natural Park.

When we arrived at the park, Emma and I wanted to do different things. She wanted to play Frisbee but I didn't. I wanted to ride on my bike instead.

Then we argued with each other. I was angry so I pushed her. She fell on the ground and started crying. Mum said I must say sorry to Emma. She said fighting with our brothers or sisters is not a good manner.

In the end, I apologized to Emma. She forgave me and gave me a hug. Mum and Dad were please to us. We played Frisbee at last.

I learnt that I need to take care of Emma, not arguing or fighting with my little sister.
