

A Small Accident

18th March

Cloudy

The weather was cloudy and warm today. It's perfect to eat an ice cream today so I went to an ice cream shop and bought a double cone ice cream. Both cones were chocolate since I like chocolate.

At the “perfect” timing, several people ran behind me.

When I noticed that, everything was too late. One girl already hit me and both my ice cream cones dropped on the ground. I shouted, ‘No, my ice cream!’

Then, I ran to that girl and shouted to her until she would stop running. However, she did not stop so I kicked her until she fell. I shouted at her, ‘Buy me another two cones of chocolate ice cream or I will call the police,’ she asked me about the reason then I replied, ‘Since you ruined my ice cream!’ After that, maybe she didn’t want me to call the police so she bought me a new one.

What I learnt is that we should not buy any ice cream with a cookie cone. Instead, we should buy it with a cup.
