

A Missing Boss

5C Lam Ying Tong, Amanda

Mrs. Luna, the owner of a jewellery company, went missing in a hotel on Saturday evening.

There were four suspects, the two guests at the wedding party, Mrs. Luna's secretary Kelly Lee and the clerk James Chan. Inspector Jack Black was investigating the case. He studied the clues in his office and looked at the CCTV images of the hotel again.

CCTV images showed that a man who was in the checked trousers and a woman who wore a spotted dress took Mrs. Luna into a VIP room at midnight. They both were the guests at the wedding party. They told the inspector that they did not see Mrs. Luna that night. They were lying to the inspector.

After two days, Kelly came to find Inspector Jack, she showed him a photo that she had spotted on a social networking website. At last, Inspector Jack found that Mrs. Luna was not missing. She went on a secret trip to Australia. She was very busy in her business so she wanted to take a good rest without telling anyone. She left Hong Kong right after the wedding party. However, Mrs. Luna's friend posted their photos on social media so that Jack could find Mrs. Luna.

Mrs. Luna felt sorry that people were worried about her. She promised that she will not leave Hong Kong without telling her staff next time.

