

A Day in the Park

10 September, Saturday

It was sunny and warm. My sister, Holly, was excited. Mum, Dad and I were excited too. My family and I were going to Siu Sai Wan Park in the afternoon. We wanted to go there because we were on holiday.

Holly and I wanted to do different things in the park. I wanted to play Frisbee and she wanted to ride a bicycle. I insisted on playing Frisbee because I wanted to be healthy. In the end, we argued with each other. We felt angry and upset. I said, "That's it! I am disappointed with you, get out of my sight!"

I angrily and vigorously pushed Holly onto the ground because she didn't listen to me. She screamed loudly because her ankle was hurt. I felt frightened and worried, I said, "Oh my God! I'm so sorry! I will call Mum and Dad right away!"

I felt worried. I said sorry to her for several times. Then I took her to our parents and explained what happened. Mum said, "God says that we should always love, care and help each other." After hearing what Mum said, Holly and I forgave each other. We felt loved and filled with joy. I asked Holly, "I'm sorry, Holly, can you play with me again?" In the end, we played on the slide happily.

I learnt that if there is someone who doesn't want to play the same thing as you do, you don't need to argue with him or her. You just have to talk things out and compromise with each other.
