

Dear Miss Bashir,

How are you? I love my school. Let me tell you more about it.

There is a dinosaur room on the second floor. I can play and dance in the dinosaur room. We must keep quiet in the dinosaur room. I like the dinosaur room because I can fight with them.

There is a shark room. We mustn't hit, otherwise the sharks will eat you. I like the shark room because I like playing with them.

I hope you like my school, too.

Love,
Raven
