It was sunny and hot. I was at home. My grandma came to my apartment in the morning.

She wanted to bring me to her garden to plant some strawberries. I was over the moon because I love strawberries. On the way to her garden, I was excited. Once we were there, I planted many strawberries.

It got late so it was time to go home. When I reached home, Dad and Mum brought me out to have a barbecue. I was happy because I enjoy being outdoors. I had a lot of delicious chicken wings. Yummy! I had a super joyful day today!
