

Yesterday was Mother's Day. May and Joe went to the florist. When they were walking, they saw a beehive. At the florist, they bought a bunch of beautiful flowers. They were happy.

Then, May and Joe went home on foot. They suddenly felt scared because they saw a lot of bees. The bees started to fly after them. They were too scared that they immediately dropped the flowers.

The bees tried to sting May and Joe. They were afraid so they hid in a chocolate shop. At last, they bought a box of chocolates for Mum. They knew that they would never ever buy flowers again.