

Superboy

Last weekend, Sam and Tom went to a park after school. They talked a lot and ate some snacks. It was about time to go home. When they were walking, they heard some strange noise. They were curious so they decided to see what happened.

Sam and Tom saw a woman who wore glasses and held an expensive handbag. She screamed loudly. A robber used his knife to point at her. The woman was scared and cried for help. Sam and Tom were shocked.

When they were seeking for help, a superboy appeared in front of them. He looked strong with a cape. He stopped the robber. However, the robber didn't listen to him. Then, they had a fight.

When the superboy was catching the robber, he said, 'You cannot catch me. I will take all of her money'. After a second, the knife was taken by the superboy. When they were fighting, Tom and Sam called the police quickly.

Finally, the police arrested the robber. The police thanked Tom and Sam for their help. The woman was safe too. What an unforgettable day!

After listening to the story of my best friend, I learnt that we should be alert at the moment of danger, stay calm and ask for help!
